

Healthy Pontiac, We Can!

Partner Spotlight

Monica Martinez, Food and Nutrition Manager Oakland Livingston Human Service Agency (OLHSA)

Description of Organization:
We are a 501(c)3 non-profit agency that provides help to communities in Oakland and Livingston County in the areas of health, housing, nutrition, utility assistance, energy services, HIV and AIDS, and Head Start.

Any upcoming events?
Meet Up and Eat Up will be starting in mid-June. There will be stationary sites and mobile routes again this year. A full list of sites will soon be published on OLHSA's Meet Up and Eat UP Facebook page.

Why did you join HPWC?
To collaborate with other agencies to help the residents of Pontiac.

What's the biggest benefit of being a part of HPWC?
Networking and bringing on a new pantry for our TEFAP (The Emergency Food Assistance Program) program.

What are you most proud of in Pontiac?

How agencies work together to help the community.

Favorite healthy meal?
Apples and peanut butter.

Favorite exercise?
Bike riding along the river in Downtown Detroit.

Three fun things about me:
1. Being a Grandma
2. Being a Grandma
3. Being a Grandma!

For more information on OLHSA visit www.OLHSA.org, or follow us on Twitter, add us on LinkedIn and like us on Facebook.

