SUPPLEMENTAL NUTRITION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM - EDUCATION

Helping people lead healthy and active lifestyles

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) provides nutrition benefits to families in need to supplement their food budget, helping them to purchase healthy food and move towards self-sufficiency. SNAP-Education (SNAP-Ed) is an evidence-based program that helps people lead healthy and active lifestyles. Some primary focus areas of SNAP-Ed programming include nutrition education classes, physical activity promotion, social marketing campaigns, and initiatives to improve the policies, systems, and environment of communities.

Oakland County Health Division currently provides SNAP-Ed programming in the City of Pontiac at our partner locations: Bowens Senior Center • Center for Success Community Center
Herrington Elementary • Honor Community Health • Ruth Peterson Community Center

If you are interested in partnering, please call 248-563-7792 or email williamsjr@oakgov.com
