

Partner Spotlight

Scott Stewart, Communications & Development Manager Oakland Integrated Healthcare Network (OIHN)

Description of Organization:
OIHN provides primary, behavioral health, dental, and specialty health services to the underserved throughout Oakland County, including those that are underinsured or uninsured. We seek to eliminate barriers to care by providing programs to assist with transportation, cost, translation, etc.

What's the biggest benefit of being a part of HPWC?
Having the opportunity to connect with organizations and individuals passionate about creating health and wellness opportunities for the residents of Pontiac.

What are you most proud of in Pontiac?
Throughout hardships, the Pontiac community has continued to persevere and the people here believe in helping each other. These are values I haven't seen in many other communities.

Favorite healthy meal?
A honeycrisp apple!

Favorite exercise?
Walking my dogs.

- Three fun things about me:
1. I have the goofiest Cocker Spaniel in the world.
 2. I founded Pontiac SOUP - a micro-granting dinner focused on providing funding to people and organizations with projects benefitting the city.
 3. My passion is bringing the community together to affect social change.
